

8. Sample Roof Crasher Lesson: Everybody Has a Story

One of the best ways to get to know each other and build relationship is by asking each other about their lives. This is a great way to minister to people, particularly to those who are hurting, and it is a great way of showing interest in them and taking your focus off yourself.

So I am going to tell a funny story about a time when I was afraid and what I learned from it. It will give you some insight into me, and then I want some of you to share a story about a time when you were afraid, and maybe we will learn a bit about you.

Talking about fear, fear is biblical if placed appropriately. Our fear should be in the Lord (Proverbs 19:23, Matthew 10:28).
